

Final Project Presentation Order 2008

Reminders

- 1. Written project reports are required and due on May 13, 2008
- 2. Time allocation
  - 1 Person: 12 minutes + 3 for questions and discussion
  - 2 Person: 20 minutes + 5 for questions and discussion
  - 4 Person: 35 minutes + 7 for questions and discussion
- 3. Courtesy and style
  - All speakers are to be treated with respect.
    - This includes attendance!
    - Applause follows all talks.
  - The style is relatively informal.
    - A little humor is appreciated.
    - Questions can be planted in the audience
- 4. The talks are part of continuing classroom instruction.
  - Presentations can include description of methodology used in developing the graphics, The methodology may be of potential interest to classmates.
  - Discussion periods can be extended to accommodate substantial interest.

April 29, 2008

- |                                     |  |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| 1. Heather Valadez:                 | Pregnancy Due Date Predictor                   |
| 2. Charles Smutz                    | Email Clustering                               |
| 3. Todd Gillette &Mark Coletti: | Cluster Analysis of Neuronal Arborizations     |
| 4. Craig Stoudt                     | High Performance Visualization                 |
| 5. Randy Casstevens                 | Visualizing a Model of Technological Evolution |
| 6. Ji Woong Oh                      | Not specified                                  |

May 13, 2008

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 7. Walid Sharabati &Yingqi Feng   | Analyzing Fatal Road Crashes Across the US.  |
| 8. Tainwen Chen   | Analyzing Brain Image Data   |
| 9. Brian Curtis,Bala Velauthapillai,Arvinder Sandhu &Gautami Erukulla | Statistical Visualization of Health Data   |
| 10. Hussein Hussein   | Not Specified  |
| 11. Bockwa Kim  | US NDVI Study  |
| 12. Whitaker, David   | Exploration of Regional Home Prices and Economies  |
| 13. Joseph Barbano &Randall Marks   | Analysis of the Risk Area Allocation Process toDHS Urban Area Security Initiative Grants |