Oxford Handbook of Political Networks

Table of Contents
(updated: February 9, 2017)

Expected publication in 2017

(highlighted chapters now available on-line)

Section I: Network Theory and the Study of Politics

1. Introduction: The Emergence of the Study of Networks in Politics
   Jennifer Nicoll Victor, Alexander H. Montgomery, and Mark Lubell

2. The Emergence of Organizations and States
   John Padgett

3. Power Structures of Policy Networks
   David Knoke and Tetiana Kostiuchenko

4. Political Networks and Computational Social Science
   David Lazer and Stefan Wojcik

5. Causal Inference in Political Networks
   Jon Rogowski and Betsy Sinclair

6. Network Theory and Political Science
   John Patty and Elizabeth Maggie Penn

Section II: Political Network Methodologies

7. Relational Concepts, Measurement, and Data Collection
   Justin H. Gross and Joshua M. Jansa

8. Statistical Inference in Political Networks Research
   Bruce A. Desmarais, Skyler J. Cranmer

9. Stochastic Actor-Oriented Models for Network Dynamics
   Tom Snijders and Mark Pickup

10. Latent Networks and Spatial Networks in Politics
    Cassy Dorff, Shahryar Minhas, and Michael D. Ward

11. Visualization of Networks
    Jürgen Pfeffer

12. Discourse Network Analysis: Policy Debates as Dynamic Networks
    Philip Leifeld

13. Semantic Networks and Applications in Public Opinion Research
    Sijia Yang and Sandra Gonzalez-Bailon

Section III: How has the Network Approach Contributed to our Understanding of Politics?

14. Voting and Participation
    Meredith Rolfe and Stephanie Chan

15. Social Networks and Vote Choice
    Lauren Ratliff Santoro and Paul Beck

16. Political Parties and Campaign Finance Networks
    Paul S. Herrnson and Justin H. Kirkland

17. A Network Approach to Interest Group Politics
    Michael T. Heaney and James M. Strickland

18. American Political Parties as Networks
    Gregory Koger, Seth E. Masket, and Hans Noel

19. Legislative Networks
    Nils Ringe, Jennifer N. Victor, and Wendy Tam Cho

20. Judicial Networks
Janet M. Box-Steppensmeier, Dino P. Christenson, and Claire Leavitt

21. Discussion Networks
   Scott D. McClurg, Casey Klofstad, and Anand Edward Sokhey

Networks in Public Policy and Public Administration

22. Local Government Networks
   Richard Feiock and Manoj Shrestha

23. Network Segregation and Policy Learning
   Adam Henry

24. Networks and European Union Politics
   Paul Thurner

25. Networks and the Politics of the Environment
   Ramiro Berardo, Isabella Alcañiz, Jennifer Hadden, and Lorien Jasny

26. Health Policy Networks
   Alexandra P. Joosse and H. Brinton Milward

Networks in International Relations

27. Terrorism Networks
   Arie Perliger

28. The International-Trade Network
   Giorgio Fagiolo

29. Global Governance Networks
   Mette Eilstrup-Sangiovanni

30. Human Rights and Transnational Advocacy Networks
   Amanda Murdie and Marc Polizzi

31. Democracy and Cooperative Communities
   Zeev Maoz

32. Arms Supply and Proliferation Networks
   David Kinsella and Alexander H. Montgomery

Networks in Comparative Politics

33. Bringing Political Networks into Comparative Politics
   Armando Razo

34. Democratic Institutions and Political Networks
   David Siegel

35. Institutions and Political Networks in Europe
   Manuel Fischer

36. Social Networks in the Brazilian Electorate
   Barry Ames, Andy Baker, and Amy Erica Smith

37. Climate Change Policy Networks Cross Country
   Jeffrey Broadbent

Section IV: What can Political Science Learn from other Disciplines?

Interviews with scholars in other fields:
38. Steve Borgatti, Business
39. Matthew Jackson, Economics
40. James Moody, Sociology
41. Peter Mucha, Mathematics
42. Derek Ruths, Computer Science
43. Stanley Wasserman, Statistics and Psychology