

Research Project Scoring Rubric

UNSATISFACTORY	MINIMAL	GOOD	OUTSTANDING
Paper with substantial errors in important areas such as writing, implementation of intervention, evaluation of results, and overall thoughtfulness. The research design, implementation, and/or analyses contain major inconsistencies and mistakes. Contains little or no information as to the research in single subject design. Major problems in several areas of APA style. Up to 24.9 pts	Overall, minimally sufficient but with one or more significant errors. Contains some useful information, but substantial problems with evaluation, writing style, or implementation of project. The research design, implementation, and/or analyses are not consistently well-developed and coherent. Some problems in a few areas of APA style. 25-29.9pts	Good overall paper, lacking in one or two of the criteria for an exemplary paper. Not entirely reflective or thoughtful, or minor writing style errors may be present. The research design, implementation, and/or analyses are satisfactory but some areas need minor improvements for complete accuracy and clarity. Most APA use is accurate. 30-34.9 pt	Appropriate topic, thorough and thoughtful review of previous research, appropriate and clearly described implementation procedures, careful measurement and evaluation of results, thorough and appropriate discussion of implications of findings. Excellent writing style, free of mechanical or stylistic errors, and appropriate use of APA style throughout. 35-40 pts 38 total points earned ("A" grade)

Susan – you’ve done a very nice job on this project! It’s quite impressive how many “pieces” you chose to use for Independent and Dependent Variables. I know from talking with you throughout that you gained much from doing this project. Your work is thorough, an excellent trait for a researcher!
